

Wismettac Recognized as Certified Health and Productivity Management Outstanding Organization (Large Enterprise Category)

Nishimoto Co., Ltd., (Chuo-ku, Tokyo) (Yoshiro Susaki, Chairman & President CEO) was recognized on March 9 as a Certified Health and Productivity Management Organization in the large enterprise category under the certification program jointly administered by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry of Japan and the Nippon Kenko Kaigi. This is the second consecutive year that the Company has been certified.

Since its establishment in 1912, the Company has, for more than one hundred years, adhered to its corporate mission of bringing a rich and varied diet not only to Japanese dining tables but also to the world. It has laid the foundations worldwide in the food industry with its three core strengths: products, commercial/commodity distribution systems, and human resources. Our goal now is to become a global solutions company by expanding our business into new fields including healthcare sector. We aim for further growth as a corporate group that contributes to the Well-Being of people around the world.

■ New Healthcare Management Initiatives

- "Healthcare management App" and "Walking Challenge"

A healthcare management application has been introduced to manage employees' eating habits and encourage them to do more exercise. A walking event has been held quarterly for all employees. These initiatives are designed to provide regular exercise activities for employees who tend to work from home and have little opportunity to exercise.

- Initiatives for "Healthy Company Declaration" sponsored by the Japan Health

Insurance Association

The Company has set two goals: "a 100% annual health checkup attendance" and "to engage with and implement the health checkup results." The Company will remind those who have not undergone regular health checkups or ignored alerts, and will follow up with employees who need to be re-examined and encourage them to receive health guidance if needed.

The Company regards the health of its employees as one of its most important management resources. It will continue to actively support its employees in their efforts to maintain a healthy lifestyle, promote their well-being. We aim to be a company that contributes to a prosperous and healthy society.
